Practice

In the school courtyard, Adrien and Kagami were in the middle of practice as Marinette watched from the benches.

"You're getting faster, Adrien," said Kagami as the young model dodged each of her attacks.

"This is not even my limit, dragonfly," said Adrien as he dodged one final strike before landing one on her stomach.

"It's your win, Monsieur," said Kagami. The two then walked over to the bench that Marinette was sitting on while taking off their masks to reveal their sweat covered faces and messed up hair.

"You both did a great job out there," said Marinette while handing them each a towel in order to wipe their faces.

"Thanks, Mari," said Adrien.

"Say, have you ever thought of taking up fencing yourself, Marinette," asked Kagami before taking a sip from her water bottle while wiping the left side of her face.

"You know I am clumsy at the worst of times, so I don't think it would be a good idea for me to hold a sword," said a nervous Marinette.

"You would have us to help you practice, plus it could come in handy when we're on a mission," said Adrien, whispering the last part in case there were any ears listening in on their conversation.

"And I have no doubt that you would look great in fencing gear," said Kagami.

"Um, I'll have to think about it," said Marinette as she blushed a little.

"I'll never understand humans and their flirting," said Plagg as he and the other two Kwamis sat in Marinette's bag. Meanwhile, at Alya's place, she and Nino were sitting on the couch watching a movie.

"Don't forget to go to bed early tonight, Alya, you have to get up early tomorrow to catch the train," said her mother.

"Right, I have to be up by five at the least," said Alya.

"Still say that it's pretty cool that the brand new space center's first mission is to put the first female astronaut on Mars," said Nino.

"And I'm going to cover it on the Ladyblog," said Alya with a big grin.

"Are you sure that you want the shrimp to go with you," asked Nora.

"We'll be fine, Nora," said Alya with an eye roll before going back to the movie.

A warning

That night, Kagami and Adrien were sleeping over at Marinette's place with Adrien taking the lounge chair again.

"Marinette, Marinette please wake up," she heard a voice calling out to her. When the girl opened her eyes she noticed Wayzz floating before her.

"Wayzz, what are you dining here?" asked Marinette as she sat up, rubbing the sleep out of her eyes as she did so.

"I apologize for waking you, but The Master needs to see the three of you right away," said Wayzz.

"Mm, what's going on." asked Kagami as she sat up next to Marinette.

"Did I hear something about The Master?" asked Adrien from the lounge chair without moving a single muscle.

"We're being summoned by him, and I'm sure that this is important if he's sending Wayzz to wake us up in the middle of the night," said Marinette. A few minutes later, the three were sitting with Master Fu.

"Thank you all for coming here so late," said Master Fu.

"It's nothing, Master, but it must be something big for you to call us here at midnight," said Adrien.

"As the three of you know, tomorrow is the first mission to land a female astronaut on Mars," said Master Fu.

"Do you think Hawkmoth will attack it?" asked Kagami.

"Many female astronauts were turned down for the mission, at least one will have the negative emotions needed to be Akumatized," said

Wayzz.

"And for this reason I have a new potion for the three of you," said Master Fu as he gave each of them a small box.

"What kind of powers do they give?" asked Marinette.

"This potion will give you the power to travel into space, I'm giving it to you in case that's where your mission takes you," said Master Fu.

"Always thought it would be cool to be an astronaut," said Adrien.

"I think we all have, Adrien, now you had better get back as you have an early morning ahead of you," said Master Fu.

"Right," said the three.

A meet up

The following morning, the three heroes were on the train heading for the shuttle launch where they ran into Alya and Nino.

"Hey, didn't expect to see the three of you here," said Alya as she and Nino walked up to the three while they sat in their seats.

"Kagami and my schedules got cleared for today so we figured we'd come out and see the launch," said Adrien.

"Maybe the five of us can meet up after at a restaurant for lunch," said Nino.

"It's been a while since we all last hung out," he said.

"That would be great," said Kagami. Meanwhile, at mission HQ at the space center.

"Why was she chosen and not me; my test results are exactly like her's!" said a woman as she stood in the chief's office. On the chest of her uniform was a nametag that read Anna.

"Because of how you are acting right now," said the chief who was sitting behind his desk.

"Every time something does not go your way you act like this, and we can't put an astronaut who is unable to control their temper in space," he said while waving at someone through the large glass window. Two security guards then entered the room right behind the woman.

"You won't get away with this," said Anna before storming out with the guards behind her. Once she was outside, Anna walked straight to her car.

"They can't do this to me," she said while pulling her car keys out, but she dropped them right when she reached her car. The second she touched the keys to pick them up is when both an Akuma and an Amok landed on them.

"Dark Astronaut, I am Hawkmoth, and I'll give you the power to get your revenge, but you have to do something for me in return," said Hawkmoth.

"I'll do whatever you wish, Hawkmoth," said Hana before she transformed into a villain. Her new form had her in a black spacesuit, the visor of which was blood red and all you could see through it were a pair of glowing yellow eyes.

"Now then," said Mayura as she approached Dark Astronaut.

"I'll tell you what exactly you are going to do," she said while standing there with an evil grin.

Attack

A couple of hours later, the shuttle was getting ready for it's departure as everyone stood around the designated watching area.

"I haven't seen anything," said Cat Noir as he and the girls stood in a secluded area that was still at a safe distance. They were all looking around for any sign of an Akuma attacking.

"Maybe The Master was worried for nothing," said Ryuko. Suddenly, they heard a noise from above the crowd of people.

"Spoke too soon," said Ladybug as they watched Dark Astronaut using a jetpack to fly toward the shuttle.

"This shuttle is mine!" said Dark Astronaut as she landed on the side of the ship, her boots magnetizing her to the metal haul.

"Oh no, an Akuma has appeared," said Alya as she turned her camera toward the villain.

"Here we go," said Ladybug as she and the other two ate one of the new potions. After taking their new forms the three heroes took off to stop the Akuma.

"Whoa, Paris's heroes have a new set of suits," said Alya.

"Hey, aren't you supposed to give us a monologue of your evil intentions?" asked Astro Cat as he flew up to Dark Astronaut.

"Don't get in my way!" said Dark Astronaut before stabbing her keys into the ship.

"What did she do?!" asked Cosmo Bug as the shuttle turned into a living creature with the haul of the shuttle turning black while the windows whited out with red eyes.

"Created the strongest Sentimonster ever," said Mayura as she stood on the scaffolding next to the shuttle.

"Her car keys were turned into a Sentimonster with the ability to turn other objects into one by stabbing into them," she said.

"And now I'm going to finish off Hawkmoth's plan!" said Dark Astronaut before the shuttle took off, sending her into space while riding on the outside.

"Nova Ryuko, you take care of Mayura, Cat and I will go after Dark Astronaut," said Ladybug as she looked back at her girlfriend.

"You got it," said Nova Ryuko while turning to face the evil Miraculous at the same time that she held her sword.

Dark plan

As Nova Ryuko began her fight with Mayura, Cosmo Bug and Astro Cat had followed Dark Astronaut into space.

"You heroes don't know when to give up, do you?" asked Dark Astronaut as the shuttle flew above the Earth.

"It's in our nature, now what are you planning to do with that Sentimonster?" asked Cosmo Bug.

"You'll see soon enough," said Dark Astronaut as a panel on the underside opened, releasing a purple light down on the planet below.

"What… what's happening?!" asked Alya as she and everyone around her began to transform into Akumatized villains.

"Well done, Dark Astronaut!" said Hawkmoth through the Akuma's connection while laughing at the situation.

"What is that light?!" asked Astro Cat.

"This light raining down to the surface of the Earth is Akumatizing anyone it touches, they'll all become Hawkmoth's servants!" said Dark Astronaut.

"Nova Ryuko, come in!" said a worried Cosmo Bug.

"I'm here, but suddenly thousands of Akumatzied people have appeared all over the place!" said Nova Ryuko as she flew over the hoard of villains.

"It's the light that's raining down on everyone, Hawkmoth is using the shuttle to create an army of Akumas," said Astro Cat.

"Your new suit is the only thing protecting you, we'll shut the light off from up here so you be careful down there," said Cosmo Bug.

"And do your best to not timeout no matter what," she said.

"Roger that, and you be careful too, my lady and kitten," said Nova Ryuko.

"How are we going to beat her, the key had the fuse with the ship before it took off," said Astro Cat.

"I'll try to keep her distracted while you find a way into the shuttle to find it," said Cosmo Bug.

"Right," said Astro Cat with a nod of his head in agreement.

"Stop talking and fight me!" said Dark Astronaut as she fired a laser gun at them, but the two managed to dodge.

"Nice try!" said Ladybug as she swung her yo-yo at her, causing Dark Astronaut to move away from the ship, giving Astro Cat a chance to fly to it.

A way

As Cosmo Bug kept Dark Astronaut busy, Astro Cat was looking for a way into the shuttle.

"How am I going to get in?" he asked while trying to open the airlock but found it to be fused shut.

"Astro Cat, do you read me?" asked Nova Ryuko.

"Loud and clear, what do you have, Nova Ryuko?" asked Astro Cat.

"I had to hide from the army in mission control and discovered that no one had boarded the shuttle before Dark Astronaut's attack," said Nova Ryuko while standing before a computer.

"If that's the case then I don't have to hold back," said Astro Cat before using Cataclysm on the haul of the ship.

"Darn that cat!" said Dark Astronaut as she noticed what he had done.

"Lucky Charm!" said Cosmo Bug. A screwdriver then appeared in the vacuum of space.

"How am I going to use this?" asked Cosmo Bug as she grabbed the screwdriver and started to look around. That's when her eyes fell onto Dark Astronaut's jetpack which turned to a ladybug theme along with the screwdriver.

"Think I got it," she said while flying toward the villain. Once she had reached Dark Astronaut, Cosmo Bug grabbed hold of her and stabbed the screwdriver into the back of the jetpack.

"What have you done?!" asked Dark Astronaut, who was no longer able to move thanks to her jetpack being destroyed.

"Good luck trying to stop us now that you can't move," said Cosmo Bug. Meanwhile, Astro Cat was inside the shuttle.

"There you are," he said while looking at the Sentimonster keys which were attached to the console in the front of the ship.

"I'm almost out of time," said Astro Cat as he noticed the countdown on his ring.

"You're coming with me!" he said while using the thrusters of his jet pack to reach the keys before turning around and leaving the ship. Without the Sentimonster at the controls the ship turned back to normal.

"I hope this works," Astro Cat as he took his jetpack off and held the burner to the Sentimonster, trying to destroy it.

Back

Down on Earth, Nova Ryuko was surrounded by all the Akumatized people.

"Looks like this is the end for you," said Mayura who was back out on the scaffolding of the shuttle. However, it was at this time that the light vanished, reverting everyone back to normal.

"It can't be, those two managed to defeat Dark Astronaut and the Sentimonster?!" asked Mayura as she noticed the wave of ladybugs coming through, returning the shuttle and everything else back to normal.

"I'm so sorry, I've just been waiting for so long to go into space and she's just a newbie yet she managed to beat me," said Anna as she knelt on the ground in the parking lot while Astro Cat and Cosmo Bug stood before her.

"I don't know why they chose her and not you, but that's not a reason to let anger get the best of you," said Cosmo Bug.

"All that can do is ruin your future," she said.

"Where did Mayura go?" asked Astro Cat while supporting Nova Ryuko.

"She left shortly after the light faded," said Nova Ryuko. The three then flew off as they were about to run out of time, and at the same time Nathalie was hiding in a blacked out van along with Gabriel.

"I'm sorry sir, I failed you again," said Nathalie.

"It's alright, Nathalie, one day we'll get one over on those heroes," said Gabriel. Later that day after the real shuttle lift off, Alya and Nino had met up with the other three at a restaurant.

"So, today was a crazy one," said Nino.

"Yeah, we came here to watch a shuttle launch and instead all ended up being Akumatized," said Adrien.

"Only I don't remember seeing any of you before the light hit me," said Alya.

"How could you, there were thousands of people around and we got separated after getting off the train," said Marinette.

"Valid point," said Alya before taking a sip of her drink.

The end.
